Issue 1: June 2017

Dear WAVO Members

It is a great pleasure for me to circulate this News By WAVO, a publication of events for WAVO Members. With the signing of the Memorandum of Collaboration with the IVSC in November 2016, WAVO will be launching courses to conduct the training and education of the IVS 2017. The courses will be conducted both on-line and on-site.

The latest update of the IVS 2017 was launched by the IVSC in January 2017. The launch is most timely as WAVO will be embarking on training of the IVS 2017. By July 2017, it would be mandatory for valuation practitioners to adopt this IVS 2017 globally.

As such, WAVO would like to encourage members to be familiar with the IVS 2017 and undertaking the WAVO courses on IVS 2017 will be useful towards understanding the new Standards. To acknowledge this major milestone event on the signing of the MOC with IVSC, WAVO would be extending discount to both members and non-members of WAVO when they signed up for these courses. For non-members who decide to take up the membership, WAVO will offer a one-time special rate to you.

WAVO will also be planning other workshops, seminars and events. Do refer to the WAVO website for further information. WAVO welcomes and thank you for your continuous support and participation.

IVSC release IVS 2017

THE MUCH AWAITED IVS 2017 WAS RELEASED IN JANUARY 2017. IVS 2017 IS TO SERVE AS THE KEY GUIDANCE FOR VALUATION PROFESSIONALS GLOBALLY WHILE SETTING THE GUIDELINES FOR CONSISTENCY, TRANSPARENCY AND CONFIDENCE IN VALUATIONS WHICH ARE KEY TO INVESTMENT DECISIONS AS WELL AS FINANCIAL REPORTING.

WAVO being an umbrella body of national valuation organisations will focus on the development of the valuation profession through education, training & building professional competence of valuers. Understanding & applying IVSC valuation standards are part of WAVO's efforts to develop the valuation profession.
