

The 24th Pan Pacific Congress of Real Estate Appraisers, Valuers and Counselors

September 22-25, 2008 Seoul, Korea

www.ppc2008.org

Hosted by  Korea Association of Property Appraisers

The 24th Pan Pacific Congress in Seoul, Korea, September 22 - 25, 2008

“Restructuring Professionalism – Preparations for the Future”

KAPA (Korea Association of Property Appraisers) will host the 24th Pan Pacific Congress of Appraisers, Valuers and Counselors (PPC) in Seoul, Korea from September 22 to 25, 2008 with aim of illuminating the future of real estate industry. The theme for the Congress is “Restructuring Professionalism – Preparations for the Future”.

PPC is the global event that brings together real estate professionals such as Appraisers, Valuers, Counselors and other related professionals from law and finance industries. PPC members as leaders and professionals in their field have been playing a key role to develop real estate industry by holding a congress to provide active networking occasion. Consciousness of the importance of valuation and appraisal of real estate has been growing and it is required to actively respond to real estate market facing globalization.

At this point in time, KAPA is pleased to invite you to attend the 24th PPC to establish relationship and interchange of information between relevant professionals. You will be provided with outstanding programs including enjoyable technical tours, Korean folk performance during the congress.

The 1st Announcement for the 24th PPC has just been released to PPC members and former congress participants. This Announcement is also available for download through visiting the 24th PPC website (www.ppp2008.org).

Please visit the 24th PPC website for more information and you are always welcome.